Professional work experience

Shan has extensive experience in Litigation, Debt Recovery, Insurance and Insolvency matters:

- In all States of Australia; and
- In all jurisdictions: the Federal Court, Supreme and District Courts, Magistrates Court, Commercial and Consumer Tribunal and the Industrial Relations Tribunal.

Shan’s distinct approach is to commercially achieve the best result for the client, through the use of both Court proceedings and appropriate negotiations. This results in the client achieving a financially better, more certain and quicker result than those that might be secured by using Court proceedings alone.

As a legal service provider, Shan ensures her clients are provided with the highest quality service through supervising every step of each legal file instructions are received on. Shan’s priority is the client.

Significant project experience

In-House Counsel for a Wall Street Trading House, setting up the trading floor in the London Stock Exchange Building for the purposes of trading NASDAQ and EASDAQ stock. She later transferred to New York, as In-House Counsel for the same Trading House, to complete a similar project as completed in London.

Personal statement

The greatest glory is not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall.
